

Selected Public Value Projects

Andrew Hollo
Director and Principal Consultant
Workwell Consulting

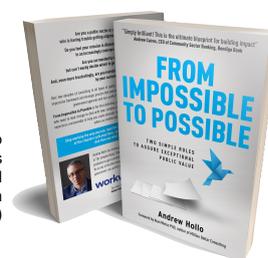

Andrew Hollo is Director of Workwell Consulting. Andrew is one of Australia's leading experts in realising the potential of organisations and groups to develop 'big ideas' and gain collective results. He does his best work in demanding, complex sectors and where work across organisational and sector boundaries is required. He has a high level of skill in getting diverse views to the highest value, and clear conceptual agreement in the shortest possible time. In 20 years, Andrew has led over 500 projects for clients who deliver substantial public value: government and non-government, privately held and non-profit.

Some recent / current projects involving complex multi-stakeholder strategy development:

- Led / facilitated strategy formulation, business improvement and reporting & assurance systems for numerous public and private Acute Health Networks, Rural Health Services, Community Health Services, Mental Health, Disability and Aged Care services (2007 - current).
- Developed organisational strategy, commissioning planning, and organisational design for Primary Health Networks in VIC, TAS, NSW (2016 - current).
